

St. Andrew's Camp Scholarship Program for Summer Camp

Each year there is a limited amount of scholarship funds available to assist campers with tuition. The money is distributed to qualified applicants based on financial need and under the discretion of St. Andrew's Camp & Religious Center. To apply for a scholarship, please review the guidelines below and complete the application on Page 2.

Note that all scholarship requests and the information contained in them are kept confidential.

Scholarship Guidelines:

- Candidates must be students between the ages of 7-17.
- Applications must be received by no later than June 1st within the camp program year.
- Tuition assistance is granted based on available funds and the number of qualified applicants.
- Registration fees are not applicable for tuition assistance.
- Only applications filled out in their entirety will be considered.
- Determination of qualification will be determined by the Camp.
- Recipients will be notified in early June about tuition assistance available to them.
- In order to apply the scholarship towards camp tuition, campers must return the scholarship letter awarded with the remaining tuition due and or camper registration forms with the Registration Fee.
- Scholarships awarded by parishes are also accepted. Scholarships from a parish must be included with the remaining camper tuition due and or camper registration forms.
- Early applications are encouraged and can be e-mailed or faxed to 732 823-1436
- Any questions about St. Andrew's Camp Scholarship Program can be directed to <http://standrewscamp.com/applications.php>

Additional information on tuition assistance:

- Scholarships are sometimes available through parishes, ask your church school coordinator or pastor about programs that support youth retreat activities.
- Consider becoming a volunteer at St. Andrew's Camp to assist with camper tuition.
- Sponsor a fundraiser in support of the parish youth retreat activities.
